Linus Omark, RW

Shoots: L

Height: 5-10

Weight: 180

Born: 1987-2-5

Hometown: Overtornea, SWE

Drafted: 2007 4	th	round 87

Observations:

November 2012 – Was offered a qualifying contract by Edmonton which he never responded to. He instead signed in Switzerland for Zug. Edmonton still owns his rights, which may be dealt later or released next summer. To date in Zug, he and Detriot prospect Damien Brunner are atop the league scoring race. Omark currently places second with 26 points in 19 games, ahead of many locked out NHLers. Jason Banks

May 2012 –Omark is a very talented, flashy player with a great set of hands. He is a creative, dynamic skater with hockey sense and a natural goal scoring ability. Omark is a dangler that loves to play defense one-on-one and beat with his ingenuity, although the knock is his lack of strength for the NHL game and inconsistent play. He has completed two seasons now in North America between the Oilers and Barons (AHL) with relatively little production to show for it in Edmonton.

Fantasy Outlook : B-

Omark possesses all the offensive tools of the game but will need to improve all-around game to stick in the NHL.
