Logan Shaw, RW

Shoots: R

Height: 6-3

Weight: 198

Born: 1992-10-05

Hometown: Glace Bay, NS

Drafted: 2011 by Florida, 76	th	overall

Observations:

November, 2012 - Logan Shaw is showing signs of life offensively with eight goals and 20 points in 17 games, which ranks third on the Quebec Remparts. Eric Daoust

October 2012 – At the start of May, Shaw signed a three year Entry Level contract and was poised to get a long look in camp. Florida currently is slated to fill gaps with journeymen like

George Parros, Andre Deveaux and Casey Wellmen, until a prospect or full time option on the bottom line emerges. After a couple years in the AHL, Shaw could be that option with a little upside. A strong final junior season with the Ramparts could impress Panther brass into rushing his development. Jason Banks

October, 2012- Logan Shaw is producing at a much better clip thus far in the 2012-13 season with 12 points in nine games to start the year. Eric Daoust

April, 2012- Shaw has always performed pretty well on a weak team, but his year the big power forward was traded from Cape Breton to Quebec. He had less of an offensive role on his new team, but still chipped in 15 points in 26 games after the trade. He has great size and reach, which he uses to his advantage. He has a quick release and uses his shot often.

Fantasy Outlook : D

Don’t expect high offensive numbers. His potential is likely a bottom six checking forward.
